JANUARY 9, 2022 AT 10:30 A.M.

At Grace Cathedral, we require masks to be worn indoors at all services or at any other gatherings taking place here. If you do not have a mask, you can find them on the table near the west wall, as well as at the Cathedral Cloister door.

If you're new here, we'd love to connect with you. Please fill out a visitor information card from the pew rack and drop it in the collection box on your way out today.

Sound equipment for the hearing-impaired is available. Inquire with an usher.

Restrooms are located in the hallway to the west. Next to the nursery you will find a family restroom with a changing table.

A staffed nursery is available today, down the hallway to your right. You can ask an usher to assist you.

Take a minute to peruse our guide to worship in the pew rack. Want to connect with us and learn more? Go to www.gracecathedraltopeka.org.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST (RITE TWO) AT 10:30 A.M.

In the interest of creating a peaceful and prayerful space for worship, at five minutes before worship begins, or just before the prelude, a bell will ring. This is the signal to refrain from conversation so that you and others may prepare for worship through prayer, meditation and thoughtful silence.

Special Note: Please be aware that this service will be live-streamed on YouTube.
Please silence your phone.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA: Hymnal S236 (Music found in the front section of the blue book)

John Rutter

Sung by the congregation.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, by our baptism into the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ, you turn us from the old life of sin: Grant that we, being reborn to new life in him, may live in righteousness and holiness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Congregation is seated.

THE FIRST READING: Isaiah 43:1-7

Thus says the Lord, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for your life. Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you; I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth—everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

PSALM: 29 BCP 620 (Red Book)

William Crotch (1775-1847)

Anglican chant sung by the Cathedral Choir

THE SECOND READING: Acts 8:14-17

Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus). Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

HYMN 637: "How Firm A Foundation" (Blue Book) Standing as able

Tune: Lyons

THE GOSPEL: Luke 3:15-17, 21-22

Before the Gospel, Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

After the Gospel, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS, BCP 292 (Red Book) Standing as able.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Almighty and merciful Lord, with good will you made us in your image to please you. Through the baptism of your Son Jesus Christ you gave us the sign of your love by his life and ministry. We join hearts in his name as we pray to you this day.

Jesus accepted the baptism of John at the Jordan River. May we live each day more fully into our own baptisms and callings. May our ministries reflect our adoption as your children.

Give to the Church that voice of outspoken prophets like John, whose example teaches us to trust and not to fear. May our leaders have the strength they need in these trying days. We remember especially our Bishop, Cathleen; our Presiding Bishop, Michael; and the clergy and people of the Church of the Epiphany, Independence, Kansas; and St. Michael's Cathedral, Boise, Idaho.

We lift up this day those in federal, state, and local government and those entrusted to positions of authority, particularly our Governor and Mayor, the President, the Congress, and the courts. We ask for your enduring protection and guidance for them.

Christ blessed all creation when he rose from the waters. May we have grace to behold the wonder of your creation each day and work to preserve it. Behold us, too, as your divine creation, and remember our sorrow, pain, loneliness, and sickness.

We commend to your gracious care and keeping the people and circumstances we have been asked to pray for ...

Cathedral prayer requests: Boyd, Judy, Scott, Karen, Georgia, Nancy, Betsy, Sean, Leigha, Craig

Remember, O God, the dying and the dead. Draw them ever closer in union with you. We recall today Alice K. McFarland, Emily Jane Meade, Frances Gladden Irwin, Robert Wilcox, Eleanore Odell Rost, and all those gone before us.

Celebrant

Good and gracious God, we cherish your Son Jesus Christ as teacher, brother, and friend. Let his baptism be a reminder of our baptism and your seal upon us as your family. In his name we pray. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: "Lord of the Dance"

arr. John Ferguson (b. 1941)

The Cathedral Choir

I danced in the morning when the world was begun, And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun, And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth; At Bethlehem I had my birth. Dance then wherever you may be; I am the Lord of the dance, said he, And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be, And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he. I danced for the scribe and the pharisee, But they wouldn't dance, and they wouldn't follow me; I danced for the fisherman, for James and John; They came with me and the dance went on. Dance then wherever you may be... I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame: The holy people said it was a shame. They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high, And left me there on a cross to die. Dance then wherever you may be... They cut me down and I lept up high: I am the life that'll never, never die; I'll live in you if you'll live in me. I am the Lord of the Dance, said he. Dance then wherever you may be...
