GREAT SPACES concerts

This Sunday, February 11, 3 p.m.—Eli Schille-Hudson, classical guitar

Eli studied with the great Andres Segovia and will play music from Germany (Bach), 20th Century Spain (Torroba and Turina), and the 20th Century Impressionist Allan Willcocks as interpreted by the great German guitarist Tilman Hoppstock. An inspiring program of wonderful music for solo guitar. (Freewill offering)

Monday, February 26, 7 p.m.—The Concordia Choir (Tickets: $20/adults, $5/students, 12 & younger/free) More information available at GreatSpaces.org.

Housing is needed for Concordia Choir! This choir is traveling from Moorhead, MN. Following this very special event, we will need to provide overnight housing for these college students. Please consider opening your home to two or more singers and sign up today. Sign up sheets are in the Cathedral and you can also sign up by calling the office during regular business hours (785-235-3457), or by emailing Music Director Steve Burk.

First event in our new parish hall—Shrove Tuesday Italian Night!

It's back! The Cathedral Choristers and parents will again host their Shrove Tuesday Italian Dinner at 6 p.m. on Feb. 13 in the Wine Garden (All Saints' Hall). A freewill offering will be taken as a fundraiser for the Choristers and tips are appreciated! Pasta & meatballs, salad, garlic bread, dessert, wine, tea and coffee are on the menu. Come support the Choristers, enjoy a good meal and fellowship and see our new parish hall!

Ash Wednesday services

February 14 at 12:10 and 7 p.m. – Proper Liturgy for Ash Wednesday and imposition of ashes. Childcare will be available for the evening service.

Looking ahead in Lent

- Wednesdays in Lent: February 21-March 21: Worship at 5:30 p.m. in the Cathedral, followed by a light supper at 6. Please call ahead of time if childcare is needed.
- Stations of the Cross: We invite you to join us for Stations of the Cross each Friday during Lent at 12:10 p.m. This will be an informal gathering in the Cathedral of those who would like to take this on as a Lenten discipline. The Stations should last less than 30 minutes.

• Online Lenten resources:

Good Book Club: A new offering from Forward Movement, the Good Book Club invites the reading of the gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles during Lent and the Easter season. The readings begin on the Sunday before Ash Wednesday (Feb. 11) and finish on Pentecost (May 20). Information about the program, along with a list of resources and other materials, is on the Good Book Club website, <http://www.goodbookclub.org/>.

Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John: The monks of the Society of St. John the Evangelist and Virginia Theological Seminary are providing a prayer journal, reflections and video for use by groups or individuals during Lent. Information, as well as a sign-up form to receive daily reminders, is online at <http://meetingjesusinjohn.org/>.

Please remember the following people in your prayers:

Sierra Burchett, Janet Lampe, Heather Myers, Daniel Nichols, Chris Vanatta, Lou Wanamaker, Karl Werner
