Reader's Theatre: Sunday, April 22

Did you ever wonder how Disney might portray Shakespeare's witches? How Neil Simon might portray the story of Job? Find out in Grace Readers' Theatre short, light- hearted treatment of the witches in Macbeth and a hilarious excerpt from Neil Simon's God's Favorite on Sunday, April 22, immediately after the 10:30 service in All Saints Hall. Enjoy fellowship and comedy and still make it to lunch on time.

Sunday Fellowship treats

Once again, we need volunteers to sign up for our Fellowship time following the 10:30 service. Volunteers are responsible for providing the treats, as well as set up and clean up. This doesn't have to be a one-person job, so call a friend or someone new to the Cathedral and work in pairs! You can sign up at church on Sunday (sign-up sheet located in the Common Room next to the coffee maker), or call the Cathedral office (235-3457).

Save the date — June 16 — for a Day Retreat

A one day retreat at the Sophia Center, Mount St Scholastica Monastery in Atchison will take place on Saturday, June 16, for anyone from Grace Cathedral who is interested. Those attending will carpool to the Center. The cost is $22 for a tour, lunch with the sisters, "Praying with the Scriptures" and private prayer during the afternoon ($15 if you bring a sack lunch). For more information, please contact Sharon Highberger at 785-633-7764.

Please remember the following people in your prayers:

Sierra Burchett, Todd Desch, Ann Gay, Janet Lampe, Heather Myers, Craig Srna, Chris Vanatta
