- This Sunday, March 17: The Grace Readers Theatre is pleased to present a short program at noon in All Saints Hall. The program will include a dramatic 1940's radio play "The Haunting Hour," and a light-hearted mystery, "A Crime Done in Rhyme." Come be thrilled by this recreation of a radio drama, and then laugh with us over a short play written entirely in Seussical verse. The program is about 45 minutes long.
- Giveaways! There are a number of religious books, videotapes, etc. in the southwest corner of All Saints Hall that are free for the taking.
- Wednesdays in Lent, through April 10: 5:30 p.m. worship in the Cathedral; a light supper at 6 p.m. followed by a special Lenten class in All Saints Hall. Jesus told us to forgive but he didn't teach us how. Join this interactive Forgiveness Class taught by Mother Nic. Childcare is available upon request—please call the office, 235-3457.
- Friday, March 22, 6-10 p.m.: Parent's Night Out — the Classic Game Edition will include an evening of board games, Legos, and playground games for children in All Saints Hall. Nursery care is also offered for infants and toddlers while parents enjoy a night to themselves. Please RSVP to the Cathedral office. Do you have extra board games, Legos or puzzles? Consider donating them to our Children's Ministries program. Just bring them with you on Sunday or take them to the Cathedral office.
- Mark your calendar: Sunday, March 31, following the 10:30 service. A special Agapé lunch in All Saints Hall for Mothering Sunday, featuring soup and homemade bread! This luncheon is brought to you by Grace Cathedral's Children's Ministry. All are invited. (No charge)

Please remember the following people in your prayers:

Phyllis Evans, Ann Johnson, Carol Morgan, Don Moses, Marie Rogers, Frank Saiya
