- Adult Forum resumes this Sunday: Historian and educator Scott Shipman will resume his discussion of “The Tough Stuff” at Sunday’s Adult Forum. This session will address the question, “How much is too much?” — how consumerism has developed and this country’s history of consumption. The Adult Forum meets at 9:30 a.m. in All Saints Hall.
- Sunday School recognition: Our children and youth will be recognized this Sunday, May 12, at a brief ceremony prior to the 10:30 service, as will our high school graduates. The last day of Sunday School for children, youth and adults will be May 19.
- Let’s Help Lunch volunteers needed! The next Let’s Help Luncheon prepared and served by volunteers from Grace Cathedral is Wednesday, May 29. Please join us for this on-going ministry to furnish meals to the staff and clients of Let’s Help. Volunteers are needed for preparation and serving of the meal. Also, we need donations of fresh fruit and home baked desserts. Contact Liz Blakely, 785-273-5263, if you can join us on Wednesday, May 29.
