

A House of Prayer for All People

Grace Cathedral

701 SW Eighth Avenue • Topeka, Kansas 66603
785-235-3457 • www.GraceCathedralTopeka.org

THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
OCTOBER 10, 2021 AT 10:30 A.M.

Welcome! We're glad you're here.

In cooperation with the latest diocesan policy, we now require masks to be worn indoors at all services or at any other gatherings taking place here. If you do not have a mask, you can find them on the table near the west wall, as well as at the Cathedral Cloister door.

If you're new here, we'd love to connect with you. Please fill out a visitor information card from the pew rack and drop it in the collection box on your way out today.

Sound equipment for the hearing-impaired is available. Inquire with an usher.

Restrooms are located in the hallway to the west. Next to the nursery you will find a family restroom with a changing table.

A staffed nursery is available today, down the hallway to your right. You can ask an usher to assist you.

Take a minute to peruse our guide to worship in the pew rack. Want to connect with us and learn more? Go to www.gracecathedraltopeka.org.

To make a gift, visit www.GiveToGrace.org.

Book of Common Prayer (BCP) = red book

Hymnal = blue book

THE HOLY EUCHARIST (RITE TWO) AT 10:30 A.M.

In the interest of creating a peaceful and prayerful space for worship, at five minutes before worship begins, or just before the prelude, a bell will ring. This is the signal to refrain from conversation so that you and others may prepare for worship through prayer, meditation and thoughtful silence.

Special Note: *Please be aware that this service will be live-streamed on YouTube.
Please silence your phone.*

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

PRELUDE: "Soliloquy"

David Conte (b. 1955)

Ty'Rese Mendez, Soprano Saxophone

HYMN 475: "God Himself Is With Us" (Blue Book)

Tune: Tysk

The service begins on page 355 in the red Book of Common Prayer.

OPENING ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

THE GLORIA: Hymnal S236 (The service music is found in the front section of the blue book) John Rutter Sung by the congregation.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Congregation is seated.

THE FIRST READING: Amos 5:6-7, 10-15

Seek the Lord and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it. Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground! They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth. Therefore because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins—you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time. Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said. Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the Lord, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

Anglican chant sung by the Choral Scholars

- 12 So teach us to number our days *
that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
- 13 Return, O LORD; how long will you tarry? *
be gracious to your servants.
- 14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
- 15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suffered adversity.
- 16 Show your servants your works *
and your splendor to their children.
- 17 May the graciousness of the LORD our God be upon us; *
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our handiwork.

THE SECOND READING: Hebrews 4:12-16

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

HYMN 655: "O Jesus, I Have Promised" (Blue Book) Standing as able

Tune: St. Nyland

THE GOSPEL: Mark 10:17-31

Before the Gospel, Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'" He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible." Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

After the Gospel, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gracious God, lover of souls, you call us to renounce the vanities of this world and walk in holiness of life with you. We pray today with all the faithful for the renewing of ourselves and our common life – that more and more all things may be transformed into your likeness.

You urge us to reform the world in our time to resemble your Kingdom. May we use the voice of the Church to accomplish that vision. We pray especially today for our Presiding Bishop, Michael; our own Bishop, Cathleen; for the youth ministries of the Diocese; and for St. James' Cathedral, Chicago, Illinois. Holy Lord,
Hear our prayer.

You remind us to pray for those who exercise authority and power – that it may be wise and right, according to your will. We pray especially today for our President, the courts, the Congress, and our Governor, Mayor, and Commissioners. Holy Lord,
Hear our prayer.

You exhort us to keep the real concerns of this world in our focus and to turn from evil. We pray today for those impacted by degradation of spirit or hardness of heart, especially those touched by human neglect, loneliness, or indifference. Holy Lord,
Hear our prayer.

You ask us to remember others as integral to our own life, that we may not forget to look for you in them. We pray today for the concerns of this community, remembering those who are dear to us. Holy Lord,
Hear our prayer.

You call us to follow you to the end of this life and beyond, knowing you will never leave or forsake us. We pray for those who have died, having fallen asleep in Christ and awakened in a new home; and we remember especially with flowers: John Carlson Jr., Ethel Mitchell, Myrle Furney, Mary Burrow, Philadelphia Ladd, Clarkson Millspaugh, Harlan Price, Willard Haskell, John Lewis and Blanche Taylor. May the great fellowship of saints bear us up. Holy Lord,
Hear our prayer.

Celebrant

Lord Jesus Christ, you teach us to lay aside every hindrance and follow you: so may we find strength this day to walk in your Way, and bear your image to a hurting world. For we ask it in your name. Amen.

Cathedral prayer requests: Boyd Fetterolf, Judy Gilliland, Georgia McCurdy, Jack Seddon, Paul Seddon, Jackie Sommers

CONFESSION OF SIN, BCP 360 (Red Book)

THE PEACE Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
 People And also with you.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: "Listen Sweet Dove"

Grayston Ives (b. 1948)

The Choral Scholars

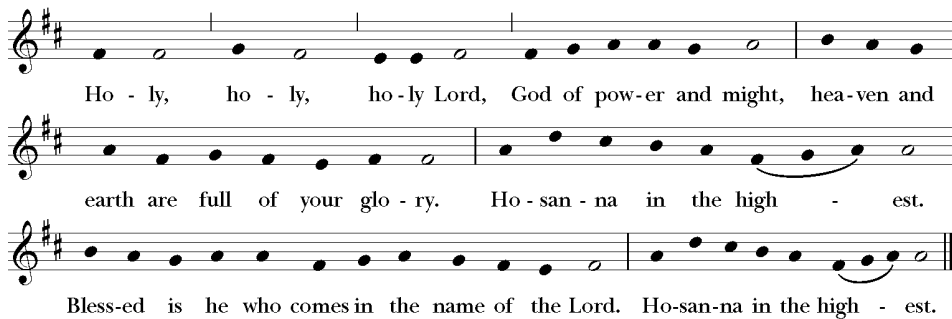

Listen sweet dove unto my song And spread thy golden wings in me; Hatching my tender heart so long Till it get wing and flie away with thee. Such glorious gifts thou didst bestow That the earth did like a heaven appear, The starres were coming down to know If they might mend their wages and serve here. The sunne which once did shine alone, Hung down his head and wisht for night When he beheld twelve sunnes for one Going about the world and giving light. Lord though we change thou art the same, The same sweet God of love and light; Restore this day for thy great name, Unto his ancient and miraculous right.

Silents in the Cathedral back in person: After a virtual movie last year, the 24th annual silent film festival is back at the Cathedral in person! Sponsored by the Topeka & Shawnee County Public Library with the cooperation of the Kansas Silent Film Festival, Inc., this event is free and open to the public. The feature film will be The Bells (1926) starring Boris Karloff and Lionel Barrymore. Two short films will precede the feature. Organist Marvin Faulwell and percussionist Bob Keckeisen have put together a dazzling music score for this feature and they will be playing it 'live' at the Cathedral.

Trunk or Treat returns! Grace Cathedral, First Presbyterian Church and First United Methodist Church will be joining forces for Trunk or Treat fun again this year! This event will take place on All Hallows Eve, October 31, 4:30—6 p.m. in the Grace Cathedral parking lot.

Contributions of bags of candy are very much appreciated and can be left in the Cathedral office. But even better, decorate your trunk (or just a lawn chair and a big bowl of candy!) and come enjoy seeing all of the congregation and neighborhood trick or treaters.

Mark your calendar for our annual Stewardship Dinner, Saturday, November 6, 6 p.m., in All Saints Hall. Dinner and entertainment will be provided for our Cathedral members. Please RSVP on the sign-up board located on the Cathedral's west side, or by calling the Cathedral office, 785-235-3457.

Volunteers needed to read to children at Meadows Elementary School: The Rev. Jenn Allen with the Diocese of Kansas is coordinating volunteers to read to children who have lost reading skills due to remote learning last year. Volunteers would commit to 1-2 hours per week, or to serve as a substitute. If this is something you would be interested in, please contact Cathedral member Arceile Ridgeway at 785-230-4272 or Rev. Allen at 913-620-7773.
